

ADMINGTON HALL

Riding in Style

Admington Hall is an imposing house with magnificent gardens. Set in the rolling Warwickshire countryside it is home to Mark and Antonia Davis. During your two day stay you will be the guests of the Davis family and enjoy all that British hospitality can offer.

ARRIVAL

You will arrive in the afternoon in time for tea and enjoy a stroll around the gardens and greenhouses.

Around 7.30 pm you will come downstairs for drinks and dinner.

A three-course dinner will be served in the magnificent family dining room cooked by the chef Andrew.

DAY 1

The first morning a delicious breakfast will be served in the dining room around 9.30 am.

Around 10.30 am you will walk over to the stables where your horses will be waiting for you all tacked up.

A riding and jumping lesson in the outdoor arena could be made available upon request.

The morning's ride will take you over the hills towards and through the imposing Foxcote Estate.

Lunch will be in a romantic old farmhouse belonging to Richenda Deutsch a fabulous local cook.

In the afternoon, you will ride back to Admington in time for tea. For those with additional energy tennis or swimming is also on offer.

Once again there will be a three-course dinner in the dining room.

DAY 2

Today's ride will take you past the Rose Gardens of Kiftsgate and then on to Hidcote Boyce the National Trust property and home American Arts and Crafts artist Lawrence Johnston.

Lunch will be in a local gourmet pub on route.

In the afternoon, you will ride back to Admington where you will be greeted by a delicious tea before departing.
